Veterinary inspection

All horses must be vet checked each day of competition. Inspection times will be announced closer to the competition. All horses must be vaccinated against influenza. Basic vaccination involves three vaccinations (A+B+C) with an interval of 21–56 days between A and B. After the B vaccination, the horse is eligible to start. The interval between B and C vaccination is 90–180 days. After the C vaccination, the horse is still eligible to start. After that, the horse must be revaccinated (R) within 365 days to be still eligible to start. In order to start, at least seven days must have passed since the last vaccination (B, C and R). Example: If the horse is vaccinated on a Thursday, it may start Friday of the following week.

Award ceremony

All trophy classes: all placed riders must appear in show shirt and hat/ helmet on their horse.

Other classes: all placed riders must appear in show shirt and hat/helmet with or without their horse.

All placements for each class, during September Rundown, will be announced and available on showmanager.info.

Payouts

Winnings are paid to the horse owner's/specified bank account. For all non-owned Swedish horses, the owner or responsible person must complete a Swedish tax form before any prize money can be paid.

Ethical rules

Correct start numbers must be worn visibly, when riding and lunging in the competition area. The horse's passport must be taken to the competition site and must be taken to the veterinary inspection and possible to show on demand. Youth riders (under 18) must wear a helmet when riding. You who are older must wear a helme, whenbcompeting/riding in the Youth classes. Violent riding/handling of the horses in the competition and warm up area, riding horses showing lameness or signs of illness, will result in exclusion from the competition without refund.

Refunds

100% of the registration fees are refunded on presentation of a veterinarian/medical certificate no later than September 21, 2023. Box and office charges are not refundable.

ATTENTION! The rider's, owner's and the horse's NRHA, NRHA Sweden and Tax form (for horses not owned by a Swedish) paper must be at the show office before the horse's first start. Email tax form to NRHA Sweden. NRHA licensing can be solved online before the competition.
